

Last first week:

The group took a long break but in weekends, focused their entire time on the project app. Notifications were even added.

Last second week:

Time was for practicing for the app presentation, difficulties faced is that a few features were forgotten like an icon.

Difficulties faced:

Ask my developers, I had no idea on what was going on but my difficulty during the presentation day was getting people to look at our app.

